Chinese New Year – Order Placement

Order by the start of December to avoid delays!

At the end of January 2014, the Chinese New Year celebrations take place. During this period, the Chinese factories will work skeleton shifts or be closed.

In order to reduce the effect on your supply chain, you should place your orders by 02.12.13 at the latest. The shipments for all orders after this deadline will be delayed to week 7/8.
